

COCA-COLA ZERO FEST 2009

Moves Jozi Venue to RIVERSANDS FARM, Fourways due to unpredictable weather

Friday, 27 March 2009 - COCA-COLA ZERO FEST 2009 in association with 5FM, which is set to rock Joburg on Friday, 10 April will be moving to the lush green hills of Riversands in Fourways, Johannesburg . The move comes as a consequence of extensive rain that Gauteng has experienced in recent weeks. Moving the Johannesburg venue allows organizers to better accommodate the needs of this massive production.

Festival-goers who have already purchased tickets do not need to change their tickets as these will be accepted at RIVERSANDS FARM. The venue will be open from 7am, the festival site will open at 10:30am and parking will be available on-site. Fans are strongly advised to get there early to avoid traffic congestion and queues.

For directions to the venue go to www.cokezero.co.za. Tickets for the festival are limited and so to avoid disappointment, people are advised to buy their tickets as soon as possible.

Coca-Cola Zero has already secured a stellar line-up that includes global heavyweights OASIS, PANIC! AT THE DISCO, SNOW PATROL, BULLET FOR MY VALENTINE, and THE RED JUMPSUIT APPARATUS.
