

North West fans to watch the games at Rustenburg FIFA Fan Fest™

If you live in the North West and don't have a ticket or can't make the match, you can still watch the game at the free FIFA Fan Fest™ at the Field's College grounds in Rustenburg which is open on all match days from 10h00 till late.

As presenting sponsor of the Official FIFA Fan Fests™, Coca-Cola is also providing interaction and fun for all at the Coca-Cola Happiness Stations. Football fans can "score" a goal, get a photo souvenir of the happy event and experience the "wow factor" of state of the art interactive technology.

A number of top artists will be on stage to provide the entertainment between the afternoon and evening matches. Among the big attractions at the Fan Fest will be popular rap artist HHP and DJ Euphonik.

Matches showing this week are:

- Tuesday 22 June – 16h00 – South Africa vs. France; 20h30 – Nigeria vs. Korean Republic;
- Wednesday 23 June – 16h00 – Slovenia vs. England; 20h30 – Ghana vs. Germany.
- Thursday 24 June – 16h00 – Slovakia vs. Italy; 20h30 – Cameroon vs. Netherlands.
- Friday 25 June – 16h00 – Portugal vs. Brazil; 20h30 – Chile vs. Spain.
- Saturday 26 June – 16h00 and 20h30 – Group of 16 matches.
