

Football action and fun continue at Cape Town FIFA Fan Fest™

As the FIFA World Cup™ reaches its final stages fans without tickets can still watch the games at the free FIFA Fan Fest™ at the Grand Parade which is open from noon till late.

As presenting sponsor of the Official FIFA Fan Fests™, Coca-Cola is also providing interaction and fun for all at the Coca-Cola Happiness Stations. Football fans can “score” a goal, get a photo souvenir of the happy event and experience the “wow factor” of state of the art interactive technology.

A number of top artists will be on stage to provide the entertainment between the afternoon and evening matches. Freshly Ground will rock the fans on Saturday with local groups, Flat Stanley and Emza on stage on Monday.

Matches showing this week are in the Round of 16 and the Quarter Finals:

- Tuesday 29 June – 16h00 – Paraguay vs Japan (Pretoria); 20h30 – Spain vs Portugal (Cape Town).
- Friday 2 July – 16h00 - Quarter Final (Port Elizabeth); 20h30 – Quarter Final (Johannesburg);
- Saturday 3 July – 16h00 – Quarter Final (Cape Town); 20h00 – Quarter Final (Johannesburg); Performers – Freshly Ground.

Entrance is free and the entertainment is family-friendly, so all are invited to be part of the biggest sporting event on the planet. “Our commitment is to bring the 2010 FIFA World Cup™ experience to everyday South Africans and spreading happiness and celebration around the country,” says Zayd Abrahams, Head of Marketing, Coca-Cola – Sparkling Beverages.

Watching the games live on the big screen with family and friends will make this a truly memorable occasion.
